The objective of the ACGS is to brand ASEAN publicly listed companies (PLCs) with good corporate governance practices as an asset class to attract foreign investments, and to make the ACGS more inclusive.

"We are glad our organization follows a set of rules and regulations, and that it is properly governed and managed," said 2GO President and CEO Frederic DyBuncio, adding, "We aim for the best, and definitely would want to maintain our good standing."

2GO is among the SM firms cited, joining the ranks of SMIC, SM Prime Holdings, Inc. (SM Prime), BDO Unibank, Inc., Belle Corporation, China Banking Corporation (China Bank), and Premium Leisure Corporation.

ACGS recognizes the corporate governance achievements of PLCs from six participating ASEAN member countries, namely, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, and Vietnam.

In addition, 2GO also obtained a 2-Arrow Recognition at the 2019 ACGS Golden Arrow Awards, given by the Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD), the domestic ranking body of the ACGS.
